DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Jolly Joker DADDY

Jack and Janet this week have a serry adventure in Birdland in which troubles are turned into joys in a magical way that every one may

CHAPTER 1 Tom the Teaser Is Tempted NOCK ROBIN sat on a fence post

Claughing as hard as he could laugh.
Chee-chee-chee! Chee-chee-chee!
It's the funniest thing I could wish On the next post sat Merry Robin. and she was laughing as hard as her "Chee-chee-chee! Chee-chee-chee! He is getting paid for teasing me.

Jack and Janet, who had been resting on a grassy bank, sat up and stared what is the funniest thing you could wish to see?" asked Jack of Cocky Robin.

"Who is getting paid back for teasing you?" asked Janet of Merry Robin.
"Chee-chee-chee!" laughed the birds together. "Do you remember the bad whis giant who changed our pretty fitting away to their nest.

Jack and Janet pecked over the hill Godfrey in amazement.

other frogs and he wouldn't know why he couldn't jump as far as they." Then a cloud came over Tom's face. "But I can't do it." he sighed. "I ed Giant Cross-Patch not to Jelly Joker was dist Joker was disappointed at that wouldn't it be fun to fasten a fish answered: "I didn't hit you on the nose. A hickory nut did it."

"Well, don't do it again," blustered Tom, glaring savagely at Jolly Joker. Once more Tom lay back and closed blasses. No sooner had he done so than a second nut dropped out of the itse-down, down, ping! on the tip of Tom's nose.

(Who is teasing Tom the Teaser, by ropping nuts on his nose? Tomorrow's hapter will tell.)

The Daily Novelette

The Doctor Finds His Suit By JANE OSBORN

R. GODFREY SMITH, commonly and affectionately known in Tilton as Dr. Godfrey, was counted among the men in that town who really needed a wife. His sister Priscilla lived with him under protest. It was only because she usually happened to select good servants that the doctor fared as well as he did as he did.

She was always showing signs of rarelessness and heedlessness of his requests. For instance, one morning at breakfast he spoke of the fact that as spring was well spent and summer was coming it would be a good idea if Priscilla would see to it that Myra, the second maid, would brush his winter overcoat and suit and put them area. vercoat and suit and put them away a the cedar chest.

"They are hanging in my large closet." he said to Priscilla, who was seep in the morning paper. "And, by the way." he added. "I stopped at the Dobbinses' last night. I had on my see gray sait. I think the Dobbinses lave scarlet fever. So I hung it on the alcony off my room. Get James to take it to the hospital to be fumigated then he's finished cutting the lawn."

That night Priscille, ponneed upon That night Priscilla pounced upon That night Priscilla pounced upon her brother when he came in the living room from the wing of the house where he had his office "We've had cards to the Blodget's for ten tomortow afternoon." she said. "You know that very charming Hilda, their cousin from the South, is to be here. You remember how you admired her last autumn. I shouldn't in the least wonder if this ten party is being given for the dumn. I shouldn't in the least woman. I shouldn't in the least woman of this tea party is being given for the

if this lea party is being given for the spress purpose of giving you a chance to meet Hilda again. You were very feelish not to have rushed her harder when she was here before. It's so seldom you see a girl that in any way appeals to you." I can't say that she especially appeals to you." I can't say that she especially appealed to me." said Dr. Godfrey. He did not say, as he might had he been in the mood for confessions, that the early woman who did appeal to him was young Mrs. Blodget herself. She was no older than Dr. Godfrey, but, following her husband's death, three years before, she had led so secluded an existence that few people in Tilton had thought of her as in any mood for marring. Hesides, she had two sons and a fortune—both of which might had so the seen so description. he stood in the way of Dr. Godfrey to look your best." went on thinking of a gushing cousin south as a possible sister-in-Dr. Godfrey thought only of the course and tabelling.

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 180-The Obedient Coin

An inverted tumbler stands upon two half dollars, as shown in Fig. 1. A dime is placed beneath the tumbler. The dime is placed beneath the tumbler. The performer challenges any one to remove the dime without touching or pushing it. To do the trick simply scratch the inble cloth at the edge of the glass (Fig. 2). The slight depression caused by the continued scratching will make the coin slowly come from beneath the tumbler.

To do fire y laughed with much embarrassment. "Would you very much mind if I kept the suit?" he said. "If you will let me take it. I will get the very best ready-made suit I can find in town for the poor young man in whom you are interested. You see, this tumbler.

the next afternoon to get his gray suit. It had disappeared from the clothes bars on the veranda of his bedroom, so he assumed that it was at the hospital. But no one in the hospital had heard of it. "Well, it doesn't matter," smiled Ir. Godfrey, "because the Dobbins together. Do you remember the bad the leaf alternoon to get his gay poblin-giant who changed our pretty goblin-giant who changed our prett pod boy.

"Yes, he promised Giant Cross-Patch
"Yes, he promised Giant Cross-Patch
after again to tease the birds or beasts of Birdland." added Jack.

"Chee-chee-chee! That promise is bithering him now," laughed the bothering him now," laughed the robins. "Jolly Joker is whispering into his ear ideas for all sorts of smart to his ear ideas for all sorts of smart teasing tricks, trying to coax him to his nomises."

all. But I had asked my sister to have my man bring it over, so I thought maybe it was here."

When Dr. Godfrey returned home his sister had already left the house for a round of calls to be paid before she arrived at the Blodget tea party.

"Do you know anything about that suit?" Dr. Godfrey asked the maid with his usual patience.

tessing tricks. trying to coax him to brak his promises.

"Who is Jolly Joker?" demanded Jack, who thought he must be a mean Jack, who thought he must be a mean soft of chap to bother poor Tom the Priscilla and I looked the things over. The overcoat and one of the suits we packed in cedar, but a couple of the hom.

"Chee-chee-chee! Peek over the hill suits Miss Priscilla had ne take to the "Chee-chee-chee! chirped the robins, new second-hand store." said Dr.

Jack and Janet pecked over the hill into the valley beyond, and there they saw Tom the Teaser sprawled on his back beneath a spreading maple tree.

Near him sat a grinning elf—the chap the robins had called Jolly Joker.

"Wouldn't it be fun to catch a frog and pour sir rifle shot down his those?" whispered Jolly Joker to Tom

The maid nodded. "She said you said something about putting that away in the cedar chest, but as she didn't remember the suit, she supposed it must be awfully old, and if you weren't wearing it she might as well sell it."

Dr. Godfrey did not wait for further explanation. "Where's that store?" he Jelly Joker was disappointed at that, but he didn't quit tempting Tom. His busy eyes saw Blue Heron standing on one leg in the shallows of the river salting for a fish to come near enough for the front door.

It seemed imperative to Dr. Godfrey "Wouldn't it be fun to fasten a fish to a line and let it float down to Blue Heron as though it were free?" the cle whispered. "Blue Heron would swallow the fish, line and all, and we would have him a prisoner. Wouldn't that astonish him? I bet it would make us laugh. Ho Ho!"

Tom's exes lighted up. "That would be a dandy trick." he cried. There has face clouded over. "But I am not go're to break my promises to Giant Creas-Patch. Please go away and lease me alone."

It seemed imperative to Dr. Godfrey now that he should wear the gray suit to Mrs. Blodget's ten party. He had been foolish enough to let his supply of clothes run down. With his winter suits discarded, he had only the shabby suit he now had on and the new gray one. He could never make love to Mrs. Blodget in the shabby suit and he had made up his mind that consideration for the departed Mr. Blodget could not possibly require that he keep the secret of his love any longer from the adorable widow.

He made explanations in the men's care me alone.

Tom the Teaser turned his back on the Teaser closed his eyes.

But as Tom the Teaser closed his eyes, something dropped from the maple the something aimed at the tip of the something aimed at the tip of the something aimed at the mark and bounded away.

Tom jumped up.

"Hey," he cried at Jolly Joker.

"Hey," he cried at Jolly Joker.

Something named to be he nose? nitely wouldn't go to the tea party in John Joker giggled in glee as he the old suit. He couldn't buy a ready-he nade his way to the hospital. He had planned to take the rest of the afternoon off, but he would make some calls there that he had planned to put off till the following morning.

Just as he was going out of one of the wards into the office he fairly collided with the charming Mrs. Blodget herself. She was carrying something dark and bulky over her right arm.

"I hardly saw where I was going." said Mrs. Blodget. "I have such an awkward bundle. I'm going to see if the head nurse will have this shit fumigated."

Godfrey.

"I just bought it at the second-hand store. I have a poor family I am interested in. I wanted to get something for one of the sons who has just taken a new position. I thought I'd see if there was anything at the second-hand store. But one never knows where those things came from, so I wanted to

"I sometimes think that Priscilla neg-lects you fearfully," said Mrs. Blodget, with eyes, dancing with amusement, focused square into the eyes of Dr. Godin fact, and it happens that I wanted to look as presentable as possible this afternoon. I have been asked to a tea sorry about the suit. It was nost So saying, Mrs. Blodget, still main-

So saying, Mrs. Blodget, still maintaining her manner of hauteur, hurried off, leaving Dr. Godfrey a little nonnlused but in possession of his suit. He spent no time trying to figure out the meaning of Mrs., Blodget's mood, but hastened home and, without waiting to get one of the maids to press out the wrinkles, donned his retrieved suit in place of the shahly one he was suit in place of the shabby one he was wearing and steered his course to the home of Mrs. Plodget. It was past the time set for the tea party, but Mrs. Blodget had only just arrived.

The role that was apparently expected the birth that was apparently expected.

of him—that of devoted follower of the gushing Hilda—Dr. Godfrey did not play. For a rather tiresome hour he

Dr. Godfrey recognized at once his wandering spring tweed.

"But the Dobbinses didn't have searlet fever," he explained, taking the suit from her arms. "I told Priscilla they did because at first I thought there was a chance that they did."

"You don't imagine that I have your suit?" said Mrs. Blodget with some hauteur.

"I am sure that you have," said Dr. Godfrey.

"I just bought it at the second-hand took part in conversation that he tried to keep general, drank tea and listened to the loquacious Hilds. When his sister had left and he stood up to take his departure he said to Mrs. Blodget, still seated rather wearily beside her tea table:

"I want to make up to the young man you are interested in. Won't you come with me to select the sort of suit you think would do instead? If you come with me now, we can get to the store before closing."

come with me now, we can get to the store before closing."

Perhaps it wasn't quite fair to get her alone with him in his car on false pretenses. But Dr. Godfrey had definitely decided to put off his proposal of marriage no longer. And when he had told her, with much falterings and many apologies, Mrs. Blodget's hauteur departed, never to return, at least as far as Dr. Godfrey was conferned.

get it fundigated."

"It's all Priscilla's fault." said Dr.
Godfrey.

"I sometimes think that Priscilla neglects you fearfully." said Mrs. Blodget.

"I sometimes with amusement."

departed, never to return, at teas, as Dr. Godfrey was concerned.

"I fancied you were in love with Hida." she said, "and the fact that I felt really jealous of her first proved to me that I really loved you myself."

Woman Missionary to Abyssinia Washington, Pa., June 5.—Miss Isabel Blair, of this city, has been notified of her appointment by the Women's Board of the United Presbyterian Church as the first woman missionary worker to Abyssinia.

FURS STORED and INSURED DURING SUMMER MONTHS REMODELING AND REPAIRING A SPECIALTY BROWN & BRAUCHER 58 W. Chelten Ave., Germanton Phone: Germantown 6880 of form requires systematic and intelligent care. Fine results secured from our splendid service. Trial free.

Collins Institute for Women BELLEVUE COURT BUILDING 1418 Walnut Street

IMPORTERS, DESIGNERS & MARBES OF WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S APPAREL OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER FOR MORE

A Sale of Blouses Exactly Half Price

A very varied array of styles in crepe de chine, georgette crepe, canton crepe and lace.

Formerly 7.95 to 39.50 Every Sale Final

Silk Chemises 2.75 Formerly 3.95

Of heavy quality crepe de chine, real filet inserts and hand-embroidered effects. Flesh, orchid and sky blue.

Sport Hosiery 1.75 Formerly 2.45

Of silk and lisle in gunmetal, rose, tan, orchid, orchid and gray.

Sweaters—Unusual Reductions Group 1-6.95; Formerly to 10.95 Novelty fiber silk; all colors.

Group 2—9.95; Formerly to 12.95 Wool Navajo and Paisley; slipover and coat.

Group 3—16.50; Formerly to 27.50

Every Sale Final We Specialize in Apparel that Slenderizes the Larger Woman 😭 🕃

Sales

L'Stone @

Pure silk; wonderful color effects.

Charge Accounts

1306 Walnut Street

The Receivership Continues Until Entire Stock Is Sold

THIS WEEK WE FEATURE

Two Groups of Exclusive Sports Coats 6.75

Cool Summer Dresses

Cool Taffeta Dresses

440 Dresses Imported Gingham Dotted Swiss Check Ratine 255 Dresses Cool Linen Shantung Models

300 Dresses Normandie Voile and the Popular

6.75

Printed Silk Crepe

Values 19.50 to 49.50

ALL OF OUR HIGHER PRICED DRESSES, COATS, CAPES AND WRAPS VALUES UP TO 150.00

ALL SALES FINAL

WANAMAKER'S

JUNE 5, 1922

WANAMAKER'S

Never Before Such Pretty Gingham Frocks at $2.50, $3.50, $4.50 to $6

The Wanamaker Down Stairs Store

WHITE

For the Girl Graduate and the June Bride

Exquisitely fine imported

Swiss organdie is 54 inches wide at $1 a yard. We can say nothing better than that its sheer, smooth, clear quality makes it lovely enough for the Swiss organdie, 45 inches

vide, beautiful in its fineness, s 75c a yard. The crisp finish of Swiss or-gandie fears no laundering.

White Voile With

Embroidered

Figures,

50c Yard

frocks for women, especially when combined with plain white voile. There are woven checks and stripes, with em-broidered white figures. 36

Plain white voile, highly nercerized, is 39 inches wide at

Sheer French lawn is 48

Printed Voiles

Special at 25c

Full 38 inches wide, good fine quality, and oh, what dainty figures, cool dots and stripes—in every imaginable color! How little a frock of this will cost and how cool

(Central)

around practical and becoming.

At $1.25 there are two styles.

both in pink, blue or corn-color chambray. One shows rickrack braid for trimming; the other follows the middy type. It is trimmed with white rep and fan-

At $1.50 there are two styles

also; one is trimmed with pique with two little birds embroidered on the collar, while the other is a novelty snowflake chambray $2 (Central) ciful black stitching.

and pretty one would be!

inches wide at 60c a yard.

inches wide.

It makes pretty frocks for bridal dress.

Ordinarily one expects little more than a house dress at these prices, but here are gingham dresses pretty enough and smart enough to go anywhere in Summer.

Wee checks, medium-size checks and large checks are in the clearest, Summeriest colors-red, pink, maize, lilac, Copenhagen blue, light blue, navy blue, green and plenty of cool black-and-white.

Sashes of white organdie, fichu collars, bandings and pipings of this airy white, trim these pretty frocks.

Gingham frocks at $4.50 and $6 are sketched.

Navy, Brown or Black Voile Dresses, $8.75

Cool yet dark enough to wear on the street and for business. Many older women like them, too. Some are dotted, some show tiny figures. They are made with loose panels, while the white organdie collar and cuffs are edged with blue-and-white braid.

Other interesting voile dresses at $5 to $10.75.

Women's Summer Suits of Pongee or Linen

Pongee suits are beautifully tailored and have the virtue of not mussing easily. $16.50 to $25. Some are made with slip-on frocks, $22.50 and $25. Linen suits in brown, Copenhagen or navy are $13,50.

Window Shades, 65c

Strong sunlight begins to show how badly new shades are needed.

Also, plenty of people want inexpensive shades for bungalows and Summer cottages. These, with good spring rollers, are 36 inches wide and 6 feet long. In white, terra cotta, two tones of green and two of tan, all water

One can order special sizes in hand-made oil and Holland

(Chestnut)

Didn't the Water

Week-End?

and didn't you wish that you had

The Surf Store is full of new suits, including some delightful

Especially Noteworthy

Are

with black-and-white, at $1.75.

navy or pretty colors at $4.50.

Silk suits trimmed with wool

Good rubber caps in various

Bathing bags, large and roomy,

Black tights in sizes 28 to 46

Black duck slippers at 38c.

(Market)

trimmed with white and showing three round smiling faces embroidered on the skirt. Pink, blue,

At $2, the dress pictured comes in blue, pink or green. Pleats give it fullness across the front and fancy stitching holds them down slightly; it has colored but-

These and many others be tween these two prices, $1.15 and with extra dry pocket, at $2.25.

Black sateen suits, trimmed

Knitted wool suits in black,

Look Good Over the shades at moderate prices.

Oil shades are 85c.

taken a bathing suit?

embroidery at $7.75.

colors at 12c.

Wee Pantalette Frocks

$1.15 to $2

For Miss 2 to 6

type; and every little girl seems to be wearing pantalette frocks this season. Perhaps it is because they are so all-in dull green, blue or pink trimmed with checked gingham:

The Dresses Sketched

Wool-and-Fiber Rugs

8.3x10.6 feet, $11.50 and $14.

12x12 feet, $17.50 and $22.50.

worth! Just now there is a splendid selection of patterns and colors. We know of nothing more durable for the amount of money expended than wool-and-fiber

Inexpensive rugs for all-year-round-of proven

12x15 feet, $22.50 and $27.50.

6x9 feet, $7.50 and $9, 7.6x9 feet, $9 and $12.

9x15 feet. $20.

rugs of these good grades.

9x12 feet, $12.50 and $15.

a little checked bunny is outlined with black stitching.

Undoubtedly the prettiest styles yet in dresses of this

At $1.15 a bunny pantalette frock of sturdy chambray and green.

tons, too.

innovations this season.

color.

Knitted sports suits of artificial silk are in combinations of colors-a jade jacket with a white skirt, periwinkle with gray, etc. Special at $25.

Men's Fast-Color Checked Shirts Are New at $1.50

We had them copied from some quite expensive shirts and they are even better looking than we had dared to hope.

Materials are closely woven and the hairline checks come in two sizes in tan, black, blue and lavender. All generously proportioned and made with soft cuffs.

(Gallery, Market)

White Skirts of Sports Satin, $5

What so pretty for vacation anywherefor almost any Summer occasion, anywhere! In the sunlight or the moonlight, white sports satin is beautiful, making glowing lights and graceful shadows as one moves. Such skirts are pretty with dark silk jackets, sweaters of almost all kinds, capes, etc. For mountain, shore, country club, sports or dress, these satin skirts are correct.

This simple style, sketched, is in good taste. being well-cut with slot pockets and mediumly

Both Regular and Extra Sizes in white and some sizes in each of these colors:

flesh-pink, navy and black. Flannel Skirts at $5 show gay red stripes or pink or blue blocks. (Market)

Glittering Flexible Bracelets Half Price at 65c

Rhinestones or gleaming colored stones in blue, green or layender are in interesting flexible settings. They're the prettiest kind of bracelets to wear with Summer's airy organ-

((entral)

Cool White Dimity Bedspreads and Sets Flat Metal Boxes, $1 They need no ironing, you know, and always look so cool and restful. Pedspreads are $2 for size 72x90 inches. 80x90 inches at $2.25. Dimity bed sets consist of scal-loped bolster throws and scalloped bedstreads with cut cor-

(Central)

72x90 inches at $4: 80x90 inches, $4.50: 90x100 inches, $5. A Touch of Color Bed sets of white dimity with pink or blue stripes are 72x99 inches at $5 and 81x99 inches to be had in compact form in attractive flat metal boxes with puffs and mirrors. (Central

Compact Powders in

Most of the good, fragrant powders one can think of are Tablecloths, $4.50 Full size-70 inches squarein several pretty designs! Sounds like good old times, doesn't it? The damask is pure linen of close firm weave, satin finished, and the tablecloths are the best quality in a long while

Irish Linen

Girls' Ruffled White Organdie Frocks, $3.75

Three full ruffles on the skirt, two on each short sleeve and a very piquant one around the deep round collar, cut in two like a Peter Pan collar! Ruffles enough to delight any girl! The dresses are all sheer snowy white, fine crisp organdie and will make pretty graduation freeks for grammar-school girls. Oh, yes, and each has a wide sash! Sizes 6 to 14 years. Markett

The charmingly graceful style is

Colors are exquisite-bright rose-petal, mist-gray, pale evening blue, salmon-pink, Copenhagen blue, delicate pink and old

Tailored White

So immaculately tailered that many children's nurses and maids will like to wear them-or the very careful housewife in her laboratory-like kitchen. The material, of cotton, is the nearest thing to fine white linen that we know of. The apron-frocks are carefully finished with white rickrack braid and the necessary good pearl buttons for the side-front sketched, loose and flowing and luxuriously long. The material is a beautiful satinbrocaded crepe of gleaming silk-and-cotton, delightfully light of weight and the negligees are bound with satin.

Lovely Brocaded Negligees, $8.50

Apron-Frocks, $1.50